

Day 1- Our Excellent Adventure begins as we head south to Knoxville, Tennessee and the Country Inn & Suites for the evening. Tonights included dinner is at Calhouns on the River.

Day 2-After breakfast at the hotel, we will depart for Macon, Ga and the LaQuinta Inn & Suites, our home for the next 2 nights. Today we will tour the Hay House, a 24 room, 18,000 square foot mansion that served as a gold and silver depository during the Civil War. Dinner this evening is included and will be at the Sidney Lanier Cottage. Sidney was a poet, linguist, musician, mathematician, and lawyer. We will have some entertainment this evening TBA.

Day 3-Our day begins after breakfast with a step on guided tour that showcases the beauty of Macon's Yoshino Cherry Trees in neighborhoods throughout the city with a stop a Woodruff House and St. Joseph's Church. We will be on our own for lunch and free time at Central City Park, the Cherry Blossom Festival grounds. Before dinner we will stop at the Georgia Music Hall of Fame. Dinner is included and will be at Molly's Cafe. Tonight we will visit Riverside Cemetery where history lives. Costumed actors bring to life the personal stories of people interred here!

Day 4-After breakfast we are headed north to Berea, Kentucky and the Country Inn & Suites. Our included dinner tonight is at the famous Boone Tavern. Boone Tavern works in tandem with Berea College utilizing the Student Labor Program to staff the hotel. As you dine, most likely your waiter or waitress will be a Berea College student.

Day 5-After our last breakfast we are headed home with lots of memories of great experiences and new found friends.
